Mendeleev Commemorate Day Celebration

Every year, February 7 is celebrated as Periodic Table Day. Dmitri Mendeleev is the father of the periodic table because his 1871 table was the first to show periodicity and his birthday is celebrated on February 8 every year. In order to honor Dmitri Mendeleev, PG Department of Chemistry, Arul Anandar College (Autonomous), Karumathur, Madurai has initiated to celebrate Commemorate day of Dmitri Mendeleev – The Father of Periodic Table from 2020. In this year, PG Department of Chemistry has organized a program to celebrate the Commemorate day of Dmitri Mendeleev and also to welcome I M.Sc. & I B.Sc. Chemistry students on the campus on 10-2-2021 at 11.30 am at AV hall, Arul Anandar College, Karumathur. In addition to the celebration, new scholarship program was also initiated during the program. The program began with an invocation followed by the welcome address by Dr. S. Rayappan, Assistant Professor and Head. He also highlighted the scholarship program that would be initiated by Dr. S. Ponnudurai. The inaugural address was delivered by Rev. Dr. John Pragasam S.J., Rector, AAC and highlighted the contribution of Dmitri Mendeleev in developing the periodic table. He also thanked the Guest of Honor Dr. S. Ponnudurai, Retired Professor, Department of Chemistry, H.H. The Rajah's College, Pudukkottai and his spouse for inaugurating the new scholarship program for PG students in the Department of Chemistry. Then, the Guest of Honor Dr. S. Ponnudurai motivated the students with his inspirational words and highlighted the reason for starting the scholarship program. Then, Dr. M. Amalraj, Assistant Professor, AAC gave a special lecture on the topic entitled "Why Mendeleev is Father of Periodic Table?" and highlighted the extraordinary prediction of Mendeleev in formulating the periodic table. Then Mr. S. A. Deva Prince, Assistant Professor, AAC gave a special lecture on "An Introduction to Periodic Table" and explained how to write the modern periodic table and to classify various elements into s, p d and f block elements. VIGNESH KUMAR VT., student of III year Physics, Arul Anandar College attempted a Guinness Record of "Greatest Distance Cycled (without holding)" on 09.02.2017 in the college grounds. He successfully completed the attempt by cycling a distance of 122 km nonstop for 6:53:23 hours. The previous record in the similar category is held by Mr. Eric of USA who cycled (without holding) a distance of 37.5km in one hour in 2009. According to Mr. VT. Vignesh Kumar he attempted this record to create awareness among the students and general public on the issue of 'Global Warming'. He said that this attempt would motivate people to use bicycles and less use of fuel based vehicles. Mr. Solai E. Raja, Vice President, TN Olympic Association congratulated Vignesh Kumar on attempting this Guinness record. Mr. S.Murugan, NIS, District Sports and Youth Welfare Officer, participated in this programme. Mr. T.R.Balaji, Mr.N.Sivakumar, Ms.B. Jegajothi and Ms.Sarojini of Sports Authority of TN provided the technical support for the programme. Members of the College Management Rev. Dr. K.Amal SJ, Rector, Rev. Dr. Albert William SJ, Secretary and Rev. Dr. Basil Xavier SJ felicitated on the occasion. The college authorities are awaiting the formal recognition of the record from the Guinness Records authorities. Dr. S.P. Malar Kannan and Dr.J.Vanitha coordinated the event.
